RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Student International Business Council, Notre Dame, IN

Fall 2023 - Present

Morgan Stanley Strategic Advisory Project (Fall 2024) - Team Leader

- Led a group of sophomores in a case study to advise AeroVironment (NASDAQ: AVAV), an A&D, drone manufacturer, on a potential acquisition of DroneShield (ASX: DRO), a counter-UAS provider
- Utilized intrinsic and extrinsic valuation methodologies for presentation to Morgan Stanley professionals

Lazard Restructuring Project (Spring 2024) - Team Member

- Researched and evaluated the distressed situation at WW International (NASDAQ: WW), a traditional weight loss company; recommended two potential out-of-court refinance options to reduce debt by roughly $500 million
- Identified a drop-down transaction as the optimal solution to address WW's 2028 debt maturity wall

GTCR LBO Project (Fall 2023) - Team Member

- Evaluated Teladoc (NYSE: TDOC), a telemedicine and virtual healthcare platform, as a potential leveraged buyout candidate utilizing precedent transactions, comparable companies, DCF, and LBO valuation methodologies
- Presented a final recommendation to the GTCR Chicago team to buy Teladoc at $22.37/share at a 30.0% premium

Notre Dame Investment Club, Analyst, Notre Dame, IN

Fall 2023 - Present

- Pitched a "buy" for Boeing (NYSE: BA) at a target price of $210/share based on a market overreaction to short-term production concerns, thus presenting an opportunity for a long-term investment into a fortified duopoly
- Recommended a "buy" for Crocs, Inc. (NASDAQ: CROX) at a target price of $157/share with an implied upside of 23% largely due to a misunderstood acquisition of shoe brand HEYDUDES and the ensuing pipeline fill
- Initiated coverage on Mastercard (NYSE: MA) at hold due to its network power and upside in value-added services
